

WORKING SAFELY

At IOSH we know that we need to really inspire our training delegates to get them engaged with safety and health. And if the learning is enjoyable and stimulating, we stand a better chance of getting across vital safety and health messages.

WORKING SAFELY

Working Safely is a completely different approach to safety and health training. It's a high-impact programme designed to be fun and get people fully involved. The first-class, jargon-free content is based on what people need to know in practice, and not off-putting legal language. Who is Working Safely for? Working Safely is for people at any level, in any sector worldwide, who need a grounding in the essentials of safety and health. It gives everyone at work an understanding of why they must 'work safely' – and does it in an enjoyable way. What does the business get? - Peace of mind from training that's designed and quality-controlled by IOSH – the Chartered body for safety and health professionals - Minimal disruption to working days and shifts – the programme is delivered in just one day, including

Efficient and effective learning – health, safety and environmental basics are covered in a single, self-contained session - Globally-recognised, respected and certificated training for its staff - Memorable and thought-provoking facts and case studies from around the world, to help reinforce learning throughout the course. Each module is backed by scenarios from genuine work situations. The course includes interactive games and quizzes, helping delegates to learn in a refreshingly informal way.
